Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs):

What is Yuva Sangharsh?

Yuva Sangharsh is a dynamic initiative in quest of youth who can brainstorm issues, and be inspired to address the problems that plague our nation.

How many rounds does the contest have?

The contest is usually held over 4/5 rounds.

Can we manage our academics along with this?

Certainly! Many of our past winners are 10th and 12th graders who have received wonderful grades while participating in the contest. It has proven to help the participants gain better focus and understanding of their academics.

How to register?

One can register by checking our website - <https://rkmath.org/ys/> and filling out the registration form or clicking here.

What is the duration of the contest?

The contest is spread across the span of 5-6 months. However, the duration of the contest is subject to change.

How do I benefit from this?

Through the rounds of this contest, one is challenged to introspect and in turn, become a better version of themselves. It provides a platform to step out of one's comfort zone and kickstarts the journey towards growth and knowledge.

Apart from this, you get to be a lifetime alumnus and get the support of fellow participants and mentors!

Will I get a certificate?

The participants will be provided with certificates for every round they move to, thereby acknowledging their participation.

Will it be on weekdays or weekends?

The contest will be held on both weekdays and weekends, as per requirement.

What kind of preparation is needed?

The contest requires one to be ready to accept positive criticism while being able to set aside 10 minutes a day to through the reading material provided for every round.
